

There's a Voice That Calls Me On

C. Jason Jones, 1904

C. Mason Jones

$\text{♩} = 97$

1. There's a voice that calls me on, I must go, I can - not tar - ry long here be-
2. I ne - ver will de-part from that voice, It cheers my faint-ing heart, I re-
3. That voice still calls me on, I must go; With Je - sus I'll be soon, this I

- low; 'Tis a voice I long to hear, 'Tis a voice that bids me cheer, And it
- joice; It tells of love di - vine, Oh, I'm glad that love is mine, And it know; Halle - lu - jah to His name, Free from sin and death I am, I am

Refrain

calls me to my heav'n-ly home.
calls me to my heav'n-ly home. Home sweet home, home a-bove, Home of the kin-dred long-ing for my heav'n-ly home.

dear; I would fly on wings of love, To that hap-py home a - bove, For my Sav-ior beck-ons me there.

