$\text{♩} = 112$

1. Will there be light at e - ven - tide, When my bark un - moors for sea? Will
2. When I draw near the o - ther shore, Will there be a shin - ing band Of
3. On yon - der shore are the gol - den gates That lead to the ci - ty fair;

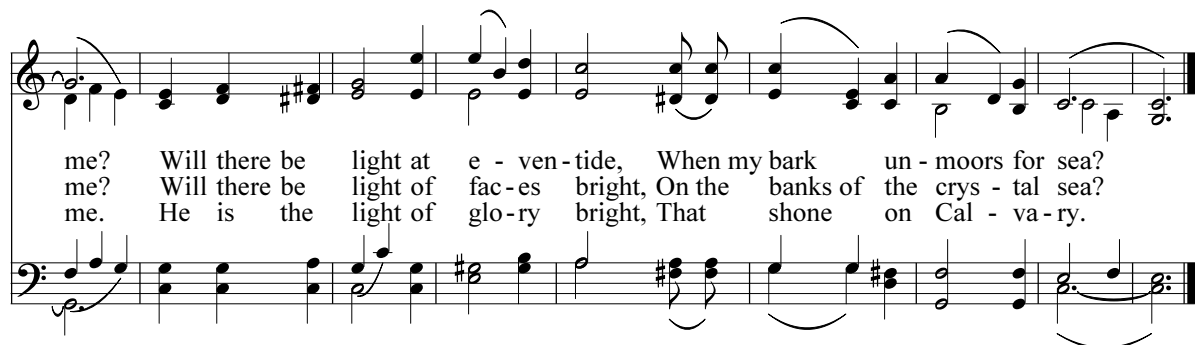

faith's bright ray il - lume the way? O will there be light for me?
those I knew and loved on earth, A - wait - ing me on the strand?
Where Je - sus stands, with out - stretched hands, To bid me wel - come there.

Refrain

Will there be light? O will there be light? O will there be light for me, for Will there be light? O will there be light? O will there be light for me, for
There will be light, O there will be light, O there will be light for me, for me? Will there be light at e - ven - tide, When my bark un - moors for sea?

me? Will there be light of fac - es bright, On the banks of the crys - tal sea?
me. He is the light of glo - ry bright, That shone on Cal - va - ry.
