

All Hail, Ye Merry Folk Today

Honyel Gough Rosedale, before 1917

George F. Terry

♩ = 140

1. All hail, ye mer - ry folk to - day, All hail, we sing our glad - some
 2. Be - gone all gloom, cast grief a - side, May joy with us for aye a -
 3. Come let us seek the in - fant King, And hom-age pay, and to Him
 4. Seek not ye pal - ace rich or grand, Nor with the great - est men to
 5. Lo! there we find Him, great - est, best, Who in a man - ger deigns to 6. With us your hap - py songs u - nite, With - in your hearts to dwell, in -

p rall. f Refrain

- lay, Come list to us as we do say, Our car - ol gay.
 - bide, What bet - ter deed could us be - tide, Than death de - fied.
 bring Our hearts as fit - test of - fer - ing, And to Him sing. No-el, No-stand, But join a low - ly pil - grim band In Is - rael's land.
 rest, Who by His life ye world hath blest, Most wel - come guest.
 - vite The God who do - eth all things right, Your soul to light.

- el, we sing No - el, And this the an-gels came to tell, For God who do-eth all things

well With man doth dwell.