

Are You Counting the Cost?

H. F. James, 1901

William Thomas Dale

$\text{♩} = 97$

1. As you strive for the world, for its fame and its joy, Have you care-ful-ly count-ed the
 2. In the crav - ing for wealth, for its glit - ter - ing show, In - to grief and des-pair you are
 3. Leave the rich - es of earth; seek the trea - sures a - bove, And thro' years that un - ceas - ing-ly cost? Is the prize rich e - nough all your strength to em - ploy, When to cast; And you know not the peace Heav'n a - lone can be - stow, While your roll, Heav'n - ly pow'rs shall be yours with the full - ness of love, And the win it the soul must be lost?

Refrain

 soul will be lost at the last. Are you care-ful-ly count-ing the cost? Have you life, end-less life of the soul. count-ing the cost?

thought what it means to be lost? For the joys that de-cline, do you Heav-en re-sign? Are you to be lost?

count-ing the ter-ri - ble cost?
 ter-ri-ble cost?