

I've Reached the Port of Peace

Johnson Oatman, Jr., 1902

Isaac Newton Hugg

♩=107

1. Tho' stor - my gales sweep o'er life's seas, Tho' break - ers all a -
 2. Of judg - ment long I stood in awe, Its ter - rors on - ly
 3. Now let the days be what they will, I hear that whis - per,
 4. The world may smile, the world may frown, May lift me up or
 5. And when I reach the o - ther side, And on those pla - cid

- round may be, Praise God, no harm can come to me, I've I fore - saw, But, since I've leaned to love God's law, I've "Peace, be still"; Safe an - chored here, I fear no ill, I've cast me down; I know my bark, it can - not drown, I've wa - ters glide, I'll find, just o'er life's surg - ing tide, E-

Refrain
 reached the port of peace.
 reached the port of peace. I've reached the port of peace, Such great a-bid-ing reached the port of peace.
 reached the port of peace. sweet peace,
 - ter - nal ports of peace.

peace; Tho' storms may sweep life's migh-ty deep, I've reached the port of peace.
 a - bid-ing peace;