

Every prayer will find its answer

John H. Wilcox, 1849

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves, a treble clef on top and a bass clef on the bottom. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The music is in 4/4 time. The first staff contains chords and some single notes, with a measure number '5' above the fifth measure. The second staff contains a bass line with eighth and quarter notes.

The second system of musical notation continues from the first. It consists of two staves. The first staff has a measure number '10' above the tenth measure. The second staff continues the bass line.

The third system of musical notation is the final system on the page. It consists of two staves. The first staff has a measure number '15' above the fifteenth measure. The piece concludes with a double bar line.

Ev'ry pray'r will find its answer,
Ev'ry earnest, trusting plea,
Pray, and know that God is faithful,
Tho' the world unfaithful be!

Repeat

*Ev'ry pray'r will find its answer,
For the Word of God is sure;
Suns may fade and worlds may vanish,
But His promise shall endure.*

He has promised, "Whatsoever
Ye shall ask, ye shall receive,"
Naught shall fail of blest fulfillment,
If we steadfastly believe.

Repeat

Ev'ry pray'r will find its answer,
Tho' it be in distant years;
Past our earthly time of testing,
Past our pleading and our tears.

Repeat

Ev'ry pray'r will find its answer,
Let us cling with hope sublime;
To the promise everlasting,
Reaching past the bounds of time.

Repeat
