

The World for the Lord

Llewellyn A. Morrison, 1902

R. Frank Lehman

♩=100

1. Be - lov - ed of Je - sus, go forth and God speed thee! Be swift in His name till the
 2. To act - ion! de - lay not! thy mis - sion, sal - va - tion; The grace of thy go - ing each
 3. O, haste thee, nor tar - ry! stay not for the mor - row! Je - ho - vah, our God, thy de -
 4. O, faint not, nor fal - ter, tho' bur - dens op - press thee; Thy buck - ler and shield the im - end of the days! Let Christ, the great lead - er, om - ni - po - tent lead thee— His gate - way un - bars; Win souls for the day of the King's cor - o - na - tion; The

 - fense and thy might; Bear light in - to dark - ness, and joy un - to sor - row; Be
 - ma - cu - late word; His power and the spir - it of con - quest pos - sess thee, Thy

Refrain

king - dom thy boast, and His glo - ry thy praise!
 ones who turn ma - ny shall shine as the stars.
 firm and be fear - less, for God and the right. A - rise and be do - ing! A - war cry and watch - word— The world for the Lord.

- bove and a - round thee, The ranks of the ran - somed in pan - o - ply teem; Be val - iant in ser - vice, for Je - sus hath crowned thee, A ser - vant of ma - ny, to save and re - deem.