

Jesus, Lord of life and glory

Welsh Melody

Jordan
87.87.47

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves, treble and bass clef. The melody is written in the treble clef, starting with a G4 note, followed by a series of chords and single notes. The bass line provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. The key signature has one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 4/4. The system ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.

The second system of musical notation continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. It begins with a measure number '5' above the treble clef. The melody continues with various note values and rests. The bass line continues with chords and single notes. The system ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.

Jesus, Lord of life and glory,
Bend from heaven thy gracious ear;
While our waiting souls adore thee,
Friend of helpless sinners, hear:

Refrain.

*By thy mercy,
O deliver us, good Lord.*

From the depths of nature's blindness,
From the hardening power of sin,
From all malice and unkindness,
From the pride that lurks within,

Refrain.

When temptation sorely presses,
In the day of Satan's power,
In our times of deep distresses,
In each dark and trying hour,

Refrain.

When the world around is smiling,
In the time of wealth and ease
Earthly joys our hearts beguiling,
In the day of health and peace,

Refrain.

In the weary hours of sickness,
In the times of grief and pain,
When we feel our mortal weakness,
When all human help is vain,

Refrain.

In the solemn hour of dying,
In the awful judgment day,
May our souls, on thee relying,
Find thee still our hope and stay:

Refrain.
