

Fair Lilies We Bring You

Palmer Hartsough, 1898

James Henry Fillmore, Sr.

♩=95

1. Fair lil - ies, fair lil - ies we bring you, The pret - ty white lil - ies we bring you; So
2. Fair lil - ies, fair lil - ies we bring you, The pret - ty white lil - ies we bring you; So
3. Fair lil - ies, fair lil - ies we bring you, The pret - ty white lil - ies we bring you; So
4. Fair lil - ies, fair lil - ies we bring you, The pret - ty white lil - ies we bring you; The pure and so sweet, In beau - ty com - plete, The bright Eas - ter lil - ies now bloom - ing. O dear and so true, We bring them to you, The bright Eas - ter lil - ies now bloom - ing. O joy - ful to - day, In love - ly ar - ray, The bright Eas - ter lil - ies now bloom - ing. O first of the year, So full of good cheer, The bright Eas - ter lil - ies now bloom - ing. O hear what the lil - ies would tell you, The pret - ty white lil - ies would tell you; In hear what the lil - ies would tell you, The pret - ty white lil - ies would tell you; He hear what the lil - ies would tell you, The pret - ty white lil - ies would tell you; He hear what the lil - ies would tell you, The pret - ty white lil - ies would tell you; "We won - der - ful love, He came from a - bove, The bright Eas - ter lil - ies would tell. suf - fered and died, For us cru - ci - fied, The bright Eas - ter lil - ies would tell.

rose from the grave, And liv - eth to save, The bright Eas - ter lil - ies would tell.
rise from the tomb In heav - en - ly bloom," The bright Eas - ter lil - ies would tell.