

There, Ever There

Edgar A. Holme, 1881

John Harrison Tenney

♩=100

1. There, ev - er there, in that beau - ti - ful land, Close by the throne of the
2. Friends and com - pan - ions were tak - en a - way, Kind hands have laid them be -
3. They who so faith - ful - ly taught us to pray, Passed from our homes and our

Sav - ior they stand; Loved ones who left us to cross the dark flood,
- neath the cold clay; But we shall meet them on fair E - den's plain, fire - sides a - way; Dy - ing, they told us to meet them a - gain,

Now safe at home in that bliss - ful a - bode. All, all are there, We shall Yes, we shall met them and greet them a - gain. All, all are there; all, all are there;
Yon - der where com - eth no sick - ness and pain.

meet them a - gain; All, all are there, We shall There we shall all, all meet a - gain, All, all are there; there, shall we meet, We shall meet them and greet them a - gain.

met them and greet them a - gain.

