

Faith Discerns a Country

Jennie Wilson, 1904

Benjamin Newton Hultsman, Jr.

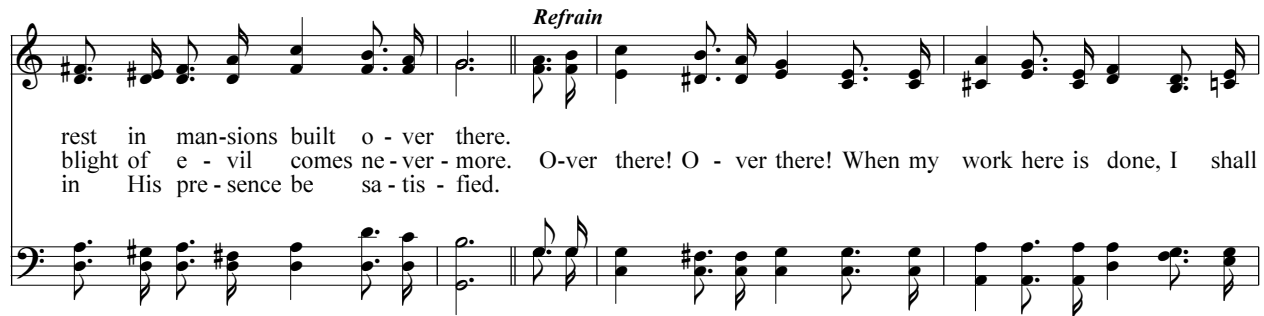

♩=95

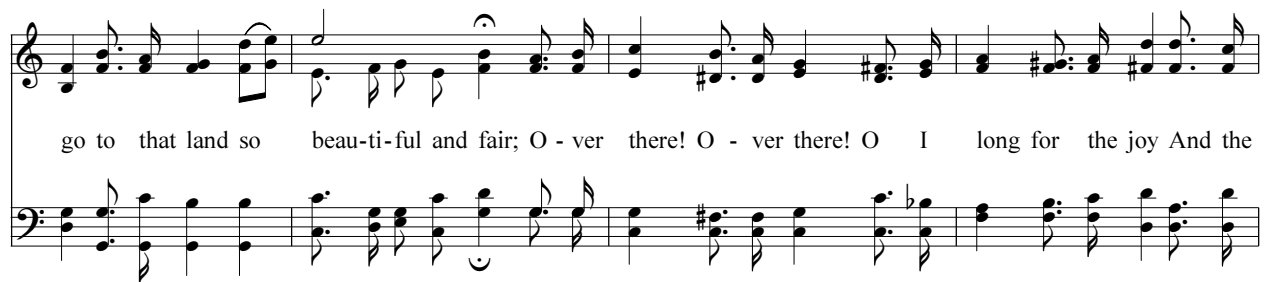

1. Faith dis - cerns a coun - try bright - er than day, It is free from earth - ly sor - row and
2. Just be - yond the ri - ver flow - ing so still Through the sha - dows veil - ing time's sol - emn
3. In the light that shin - eth there from the face Of the bless - ed Sav - ior I shall a - care; With my jour - ney end - ed and my bat - tle won, I shall shore, Lies the land e - ter - nal where re - deemed ones dwell, And where

- bide; Through the end - less ag - es saved by His shed blood, I shall

Refrain
rest in man - sions built o - ver there.
blight of e - vil comes ne - ver - more. O - ver there! O - ver there! When my work here is done, I shall in His pre - sence be sa - tis - fied.

go to that land so beau - ti - ful and fair; O - ver there! O - ver there! O I long for the joy And the peace of the home o - ver there.