

From Far Away

William Morris (1834-1896)

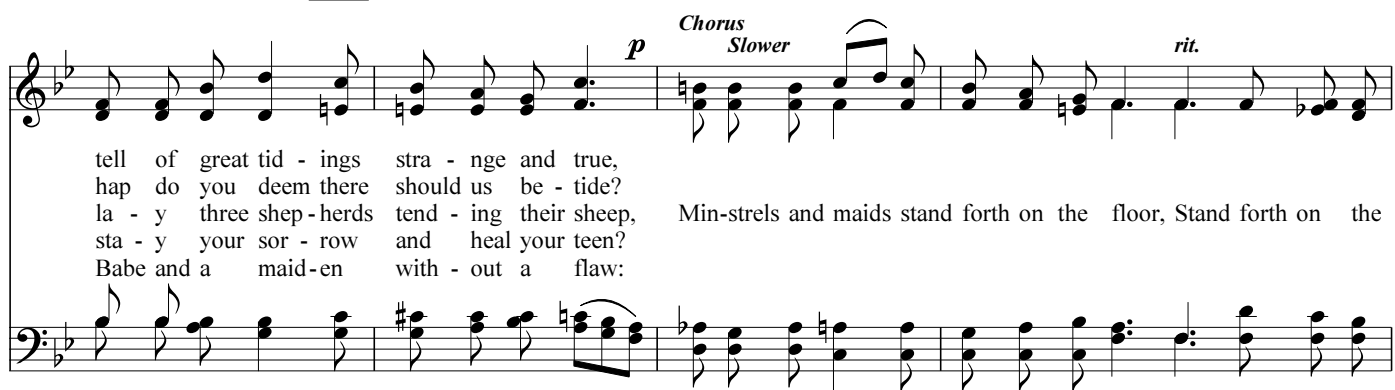

John Bacchus Dykes (1823-1876)

Lively pp Slowly Tempo I

1. From far a - w - ay we come to you, To
2. For as we wa - n - dered far and wide, What
3. Un - der a bent when the night was deep, The snow in the street, and the wind on the door, There
4. O ye shep - herds, what have ye seen? To 5. "In an ox stall this night we saw," A

p Chorus Slower rit.

tell of great tid - ings stra - nge and true,
hap do you deem there should us be - tide?
la - y three shep - herds tend - ing their sheep, Min-strels and maids stand forth on the floor, Stand forth on the sta - y your sor - row and heal your teen?
Babe and a maid-en with - out a flaw:

Tempo I rall.

floor, From far a - way we come to you, To tell of great tid - ings strange and true, From far a - way we

cresc. ff rit.

come to you, To tell of great tid-ings strange and true.