

All Aboard for Glory

J. D. Eller, 1922

J. D. Eller

$\text{♩} = 83$

1. Has - ten down to the Gos - pel sta - tion, Draw - ing
 2. There's no time to de - lay, my bro - ther, Get your 3. Come and start on the way to glo - ry, There to near is the Heav'n-bound train, It is now on the way to glo - ry, Ne - tick - et, and be on time, Soon the pow - er - ful Gos - pel en - gine Will be dwell in the land di - vine, With our Sav - ior, the Great Con - duc - tor, At the

- more to re - turn a - gain; Bright the head-light of truth is gleam - ing, It's on off for the heav'n - ly clime; Ask the Sav - ior for His pro - tec - tion, He is end of the glo - ry line; There to en - ter the ho - ly ci - ty, Where we'll time, and will not de - lay; Now it's slow - ing up at the sta - tion, I can sure to be true and kind, If you lin - ger in doubt and fol - ly, You will meet our be - loved and own, Join with them and the ho - ly an - gels, Sing - ing hear the con - duc - tor say: sure - ly be left be - hind. "All a - board, we're go - ing to prais - es a - round the throne. "All a - board," glo-ry, All a - board, come, join our band; All a - go-ing to glo-ry, All a-board, come, join our band; All

- board, come, swell the sweet sto-ry, We are bound for glo-ry a-board, swell the sweet sto-ry, We are bound land!"

 for glo-ry land!"