

Have You Sought?

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1891

Ira David Sankey

♩=100

1. Have you sought for the sheep that have wan - dered, Far a - way on the dark mount - ains
2. Have you been to the sad and the lone - ly, Who - se bur - dens are hea - vy to
3. Have you knelt by the sick and the dy - ing, Th - e mes - sage of mer - cy to 4. If to Je - sus you an - swer these quest - ions, And to Him have been faith - ful and cold? Have you gone, like the ten - der Shep - herd, To bring them a - gain to the fold? Have you bear? Have you car - ried the name of Je - sus, And ten - der - ly breathed it in prayer? Have you tell? Have you stood by the tremb - ling cap - tive A - lone in his dark pri - son cell? Have you true, Then be - hold, in the man - sions yon - der Are crowns of re - joic - ing for you; And fol - lowed their wea - ry foot - steps? And the wild de - sert waste have you crossed, Nor told of the great sal - va - tion He died on the cross to se - cure? Have you point - ed the lost to Je - sus, And urged them on Him to be - lieve? Have you there from the King e - ter - nal Your wel - come and greet - ing shall be, "Inas - lin - gered till safe home re - turn - ing, You have ga - thered the sheep that were lost? asked them to trust in the Sav - ior, Who - se love shall for - ev - er en - dure? told of the life ev - er - last - ing, Th - at all, if they will, may re - ceive?

- much as 'twas done for My breth - ren, E - ven so it was done un - to Me."