

Over That Jasper Sea

Neva E. Parkhill, 1880

Charles Eddy Leslie

♩=88

1. O-ver the tide of that jas-per sea, Soft-ly a sweet voice is call-ing to me;
2. O-ver the tide of that jas-per sea, Soft-ly the ac-cents are plead-ing with me;
3. O-ver the tide of that jas-per sea, Com-eth a vi-sion of beau-ty to me;

Lov-ing and ten-der, be-seech-ing its tone, Dear-ly be-loved, O why long-er roam?
Plead-ing so gent-ly in mu-sic-al tone, Dear-ly be-loved, O why long-er roam?
An-gels are beckon-ing a-down from the dome, Dear-ly be-loved, O why long-er roam?

Refrain

Call-ing, call-ing, yes, call-ing for me, O-ver the tide of that jas-per sea,

Call-ing, call-ing, yes, call-ing for me, O-ver the tide of that jas-per sea.
