

God Is Good

M. G., 1880

E. P. McMurray

♩=95

1. "God is good," the danc - ing sun - beams Paint in tints of gold "God is
2. "God is good," rings through the wood-land— Birds peal forth the song. "God is
3. "God is good," all na - ture's ring - ing With the note of praise. "God is good," with - in their pe - tals Na - ture's flowers en - fold. "God is good," the stars are beam - ing In their glo - rious throng. "God is good," O man, re - e - cho! Grate - ful pæ - ans raise. "God is good," the spark-ling rain-drops Speak in mu - sic low, "God is good," the lim - pid good," the rain - bow smil-eth From the glow-ing sky. "God is good," the south winds good," and man He lov - eth With an end - less love. "God is good," oh, may we brook-lets Rip - ple as they flow. soft - ly Through the for - est sigh. "God is good," and man He lov-eth With an sing it, In His home a - bove.

Refrain

end-less, end-less love. "God is good," oh, may we sing it In His hap-py home a - bove.