

I Am the Door

Daniel Webster Whittle, 1881

James McGranahan

♩=83 Moderato

1. O what shall I do to be saved? The gath - ering storm I be - hold, Ex-
2. O what shall I do to be saved? No light, no hope can I see, No
3. O what shall I do to be saved? So vile, so bur - dened with sin, O
4. I en - ter the wide o - pen door, In Christ I now have be - lieved; I'm

- posed to the wrath of my God; Is there no shel-ter-ing fold, Is there no shel-ter-ing help in my-self can I find; Is there no mer-cy for me, Is there no mer-cy for how to the fold may I come, How may I en - ter there - in, How may I en - ter therecleansed from my sins by His blood; I trust, and now I am saved, I trust, and now I am fold?

Refrain

me?
- in? I am the door, by Me if an-y man en-ter in, He shall be saved, he shall be saved;
saved!

I am the door, by Me if an-y man en-ter in, He shall be saved, he shall be saved.
