

I Am Sheltered in Thee

Frank Marion Davis, 1886

Frank Marion Davis

$\text{♩} = 110$

1. I am safe in the Rock that is high-er than I; This my re - fuge thro'
2. I am safe in the Cleft that was riv - en for me; From the power of the
3. I am safe in the Rock, let what - ev - er be - tide; Death and hell have no storms e'er shall be; Tho' my frail bark is tossed on the bil - lows' mad tempt - er I'm free; Tho' my path - way be dark, and the storms sweep the ter - ror for me; I can walk with - out fear through the sha - dow - y

Refrain

foam, Yet I'm shel-tered for - ev - er in Thee.
sky, Yet se - cure-ly I'm shel-tered in Thee. Shel-tered in Thee, shel-tered in vale, For se - cure-ly I'm shel-tered in Thee. Shel-tered in Thee, in Thee, O Thou blest Rock of Ag-es, I am shel-tered in Thee.

Thee