

Jesus Stood on the Shore

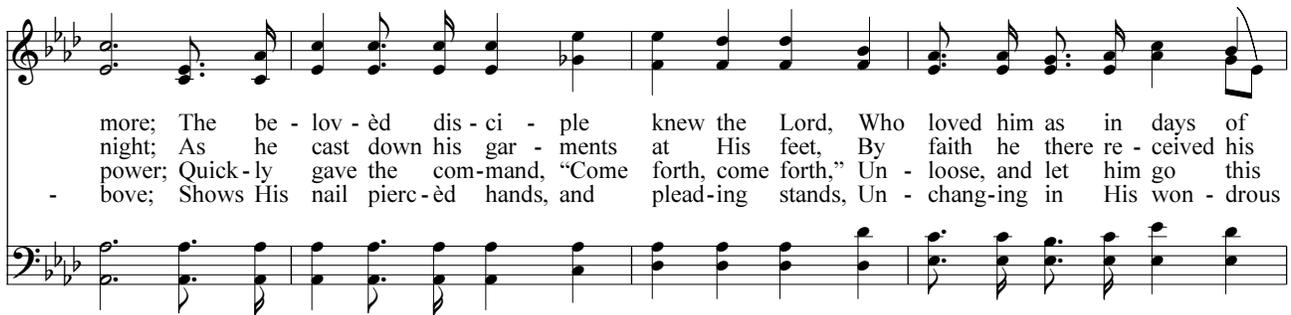

Henry Lake Gilmour, 1897

Henry Lake Gilmour

$\text{♩} = 100$

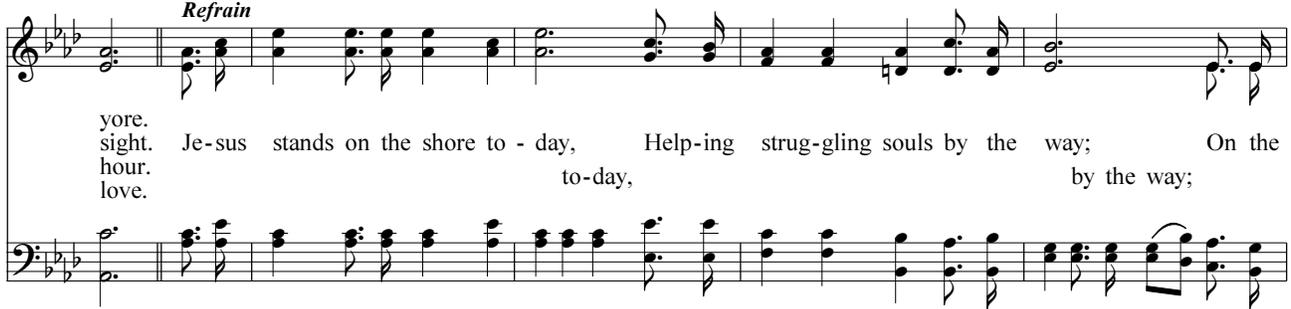

1. Je - sus stood on the shore, when the morn - ing came, Ap - pear - ing to His friends once
2. Je - sus stood by the way, when the beg - gar blind, For mer - cy cried thro' na - ture's
3. Je - sus stood by the grave of the friend He loved, And showed His re - sur - rect - ion
4. Je - sus stand - eth to - day at the mer - cy - seat, Our ad - vo - cate with God a - more; The be - lov - èd dis - ci - ple knew the Lord, Who loved him as in days of night; As he cast down his gar - ments at His feet, By faith he there re - ceived his power; Quick - ly gave the com - mand, "Come forth, come forth," Un - loose, and let him go this

- bove; Shows His nail pierc - èd hands, and plead - ing stands, Un - chang - ing in His won - drous yore.

Refrain

sight. Je - sus stands on the shore to - day, Help - ing strug - gling souls by the way; On the hour.
love. to - day, by the way;

land, or wave, Je - sus waits to save, He ne - ver turns a soul a - way.