

Always and All for Jesus

Joseph Henry Keagle, 1896

Joseph Henry Keagle

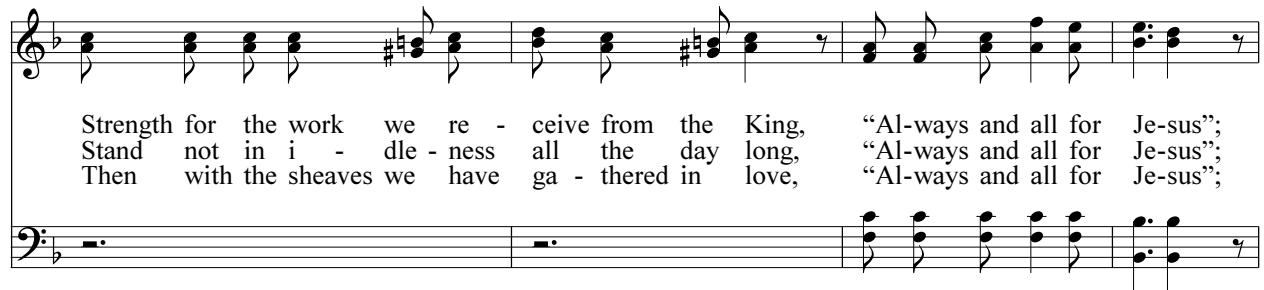

$\text{♩} = 95$

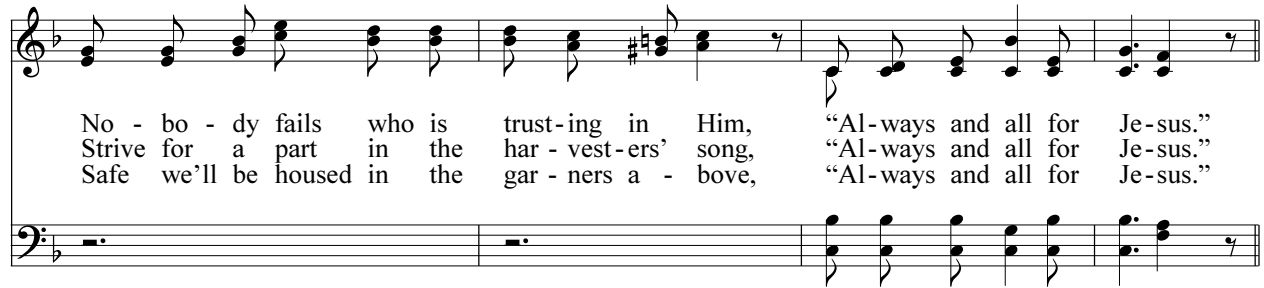

1. Let us go forth to our la - bor of love, "Al-ways and all for Je-sus";
 2. Great is the work, and the work-ers are few, "Al-ways and all for Je-sus";
 3. Work till the sum - mons of "Ye bless-èd, come," "Al-ways and all for Je-sus";

Zeal - ous to glean for the gar - ners a - bove, "Al-ways and all for Je-sus";
 Do with your might what your hands find to do, "Al-ways and all for Je-sus";
 Calls us to join in the glad har - vest home, "Al-ways and all for Je-sus";

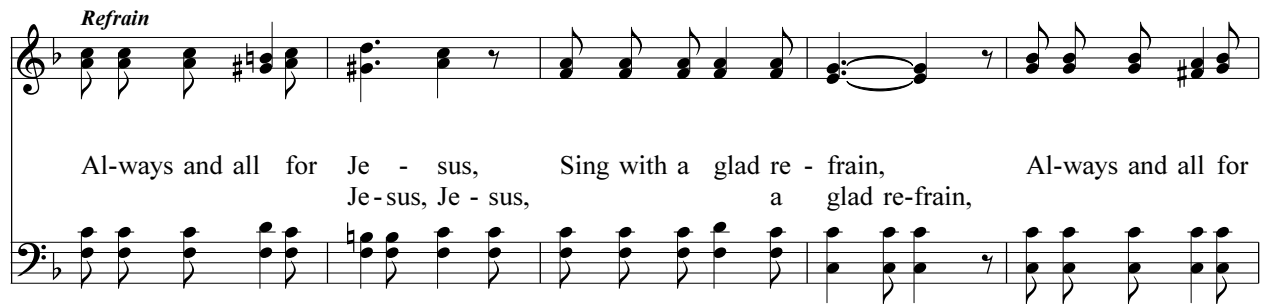

Strength for the work we re - ceive from the King, "Al-ways and all for Je-sus";
 Stand not in i - dle - ness all the day long, "Al-ways and all for Je-sus";
 Then with the sheaves we have ga - thered in love, "Al-ways and all for Je-sus";

No - bo - dy fails who is trust - ing in Him, "Al-ways and all for Je-sus."
 Strive for a part in the har - vest - ers' song, "Al-ways and all for Je-sus."
 Safe we'll be housed in the gar - ners a - bove, "Al-ways and all for Je-sus."

Refrain

Al-ways and all for Je - sus, Sing with a glad re - frain, Al-ways and all for Je - sus, Je - sus, a glad re-frain,

Je - sus, Till our Lord comes a - gain; Al-ways and all for Je - sus, Je-sus, Je - sus, a - gain, Je - sus, Je - sus,

cresc. rit.

Glad-ly we yield Thine own. The har-vest shall end, And our Lord shall des-cend, To Thine own,

ga-ther His reap-ers home.