

Let Your Light So Shine

Milford Hall Lyon, 1908

Fred S. Shepard

$\text{♩} = 95$

1. Let your light shine forth in the dark-ness Of a world op - pressed by sin, On
 2. Let your lips speak for - th the prais-es Of the Christ who set you free, From
 3. Let your life re - ve - al the rich-es Of a soul in - spired by love, That
 4. Let your love show for - th in ser - vice That the world in you may see The hu - man hearts that need your help T - o light-en the gloom with - in. slav-ish fear and sin - ful life To His jo - y - ous li - ber - ty. Let your o - thers, too, may catch the strain A - nd hon - or your God a - bove.

Refrain

 liv - ing Christ per - vades your life, Hi - s Spir - it a - bid - ing free.

light so shine, Let your light so shine That Your light so shine be - fore men, Your light so shine be - fore men;

they may see your good works, And glor-i - fy God in Heav'n.
 good works,