

Are You Ready for the Judgment Day?

Charles Millard Fillmore, 1893

Charles Millard Fillmore

♩ = 88

1. Christ the Lord has gone to glo - ry, But He's com - ing back a - gain; He is
2. There will be a sep - a - ra - tion On that fi - nal judg - ment day; On the
3. If you spend your time in seek - ing Af - ter wealth and earth - ly fame, Un - re -
4. Now pre - pare to meet your Mak - er, Choose to - day the bet - ter part; While you

com - ing with His an - gels and A sword of fier - y flame; Then all right, the good; the left, the bad Who walked in sin's broad way; "Come, ye
- pent - ant, dis - be - liev - ing in His ho - ly bless - èd name, If you hear His ear - nest plead - ing voice, Oh, hard - en not your heart; Seek Him na - tions, tribes and peo - ple shall Be ga - thered round His throne To re - bless - èd," then the Judge will say To those up - on the right, But "de - live in world - ly plea - sures and The Lord of life de - ny, In - dig - while He may be found, and call Up - on Him while He's near, Lest He

Refrain

- ceive re - ward and re - com - pense For all that they have done.
 - part" to those up - on the left, "To dark - est end - less night." Are you
 - na - tion, wrath and an - guish is Your por - tion when you die.
 laugh at your ca - lam - i - ty And mock when comes your fear.

rea - dy for that judg - ment day? Are you rea - dy for that judg - ment day? You must stand be - fore the Lord To re - ceive your just re - ward— Are you rea-dy for that judg-ment day?