

Through Desert Land

Anna P. Williams 2010, & Richard W. Adams 2017

Harmonia Sacra, 1867

♩=130

1. While plod - ding through the de - sert land, Is all you
2. The long years stretch on, the sun burn - ing down, The burden so
3. You think life is o'er, you can't car - ry on, Your footsteps on
4. The Word of God speaks, put down your des - pair: "I always am
5. So cast your bur - den on the Lord; Your God will sus -
6. It never was o'er— God does not for - sake; Mir - age gives see but mir - age and sand? Has God hid His face, for - heavy, and hard the ground; As strength starts to fail and fire, and strength is gone; But on - ly be - lieve: your

- tain you and help af - ford; My love watch - es o'er you, still way to spark - ling lake! What Go - d has prom - ised,

- got - ten His child? The liv - ing wa - ter gone with His smile?
dark fears a - rise, You question His pro - mise, tears fill your eyes.
fear will take wings, The sand turn to pools, and life giv - ing springs!
ev - er the same, And he who be - lieves, shall ne - ver know shame."
faith to the grave, Fear not, He is a - ble, might-y to save.
that will He do: The blessing of Hea - ven rains down a - new.