Drawn to You

Scott Werdebaugh, 2000

Stately and Majestic (♩=108)

1. O my God, when I con-sid-er all The ways You show me Your great
2. O my God, when I was lost in sin, When I was Your great en-e-3. O my God, I'll glad-ly bear my cross And live for You through-out my love; I won-der why You'd go so far To love one such as -my; You came to me and saved my soul And now I am Your days; No less You've done for me, I know, And still You love me me. Yet it's not what I've done nor who I am That draws You to me; It's friend. Your great love is more than I can com-pre-hend This side of heav'n; For so! Let me show to o-thers all a-round How much You mean to me; For

Who You are and what You've done That draws my soul to You.
all You are and all You've done, Ny soul is drawn to You.
all You are and all You've done, Lord, draw us all to You.
