

Something for Thee

William Henry Gardner, 1892

E. H. Packard

$\text{♩} = 88$

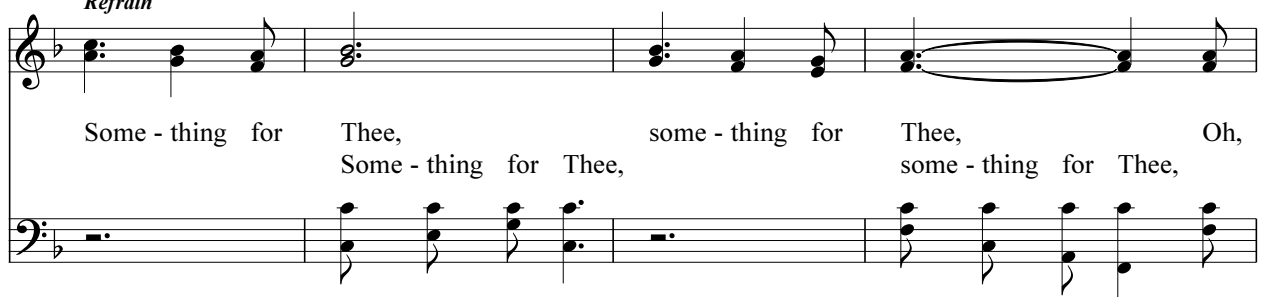

1. My tal - ents are few, dear-est Mas - ter, Yet I long of some use to be; Then
2. I can - not with fi - er - y warn - ings Make the wick - ed their guilt to see; Yet
3. No rich - es, a - las! can I give Thee, For they ne - ver have come to me; But tell me, I pray Thee, dear Je - sus, How may I do some - thing for Thee?

sure - ly some path - way is o - pen, Where I may do some - thing for Thee?
free - ly I lay on Thy al - tar, My life, to do some - thing for Thee.

Refrain

Some - thing for Thee, some - thing for Thee, Oh,
Some - thing for Thee, some - thing for Thee,

tell me, I pray Thee, dear Mas - ter, How may I do some - thing for Thee?
