

Hear Him Knocking

Johnson Oatman, Jr., 1897

J. Howard Entwisle

$\text{♩} = 115$

1. A hand all bruised and bleed - ing Is knock - ing at the door, Is
2. How oft - en when in sick - ness, Your bo - dy racked with pain, This
3. While stand - ing by the cas - ket Of some de - part - ed friend, With 4. Why will you keep Him knock - ing? Why don't you let Him in? He'll knocking at the door of your heart; It is the hand of Je - sus, Who knocking re - sounded in your ears; How oft - en in the night - time The sorrow your heart was sick and sore; What caused that train of think - ing Of fill your pathway with de - light; That hand so torn and bleed - ing Will long has knocked be - fore, Though oft you have told Him to de - part. knock would come a - gain, So loud it would fill your soul with fears. O how your life would end? That hand was then knock - ing at the door.

Refrain
wash a - way your sin; O wel - come the Sav - ior in to - night!

don't you hear Him knock - ing, Knock - ing at the door? He's knock - ing at the door to come in; He wants an in - vi - ta - tion To cross your thres - hold o'er, Then Je - sus will save you from all sin.