

Land of the Unsetting Sun

William Clark Martin, 1909

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

♩=122

1. Some sweet day I shall en - ter a place, When the work of my life shall be
2. Yes, the bur - dens of life can be borne, When I think of the prize to be
3. I can peace-ful - ly wel - come the night When the hours of my life shall be
4. O what joy! mor - tal tongue can - not tell, With e - ter - ni - ty on - ly be-done; A place that is filled with His mar - vel - ous grace, In the won; Of the beau - ti - ful robe and the crown to be worn, In the run; It will bring me no grief, but su - per - nal de - light, In the

- gun, One an - oth - er to meet, with the Sav - ior to dwell, In the land of the un - set - ting sun.

Refrain

land of the un - set - ting sun. I shall dwell in the land of de - light, When my land of the un - set - ting sun. of de - light
land of the un - set - ting sun.

jour - ney on earth has been run; In the land where there com - eth no jour - ney on earth has been run;

sor - row, no night, In the land of the un - set - ting sun.

