

He Took My Place

Eliza Edmunds Hewitt, 1893

John Robson Sweney

♩=90

1. A trem - bling soul, I sought the Lord, My sin con - fessed, my guilt de -
2. Here rests my heart; as - sur - ance sweet, His bless - ed work He will com -
3. When sor - row veils the smil - ing day, When e - vil foes be - set my
4. No room for doubt, no room for fears, When to my view the cross ap -

- plored; How soft and sweet, His word to me, "I took thy place, and died for thee."
- plete, Since in His love, so great and free, He took my place, and died for me.
way, A - bun - dant grace in Him I see, He took my place, and died for me.
- pears, My joy - ful song shall ev - er be, He took my place, and died for me.

Refrain

No o - ther hope, no o - ther plea; He took my
No o - ther hope, no o - ther plea, place, and died for me; O pre - cious Lord, of Cal - va -

He took my place And died for me. O pre - cious Lamb ry! He took my place and died for me.

of Cal - va - ry! He took my place and died for me.