

There's Grace and Glory, Too

Thomas M. Eastwood, 1907

Mary Hubbert Munford

$\text{♩} = 97$

1. O the grace of God is bound-less, It is like a migh-ty sea, And it rolls on thro' the
2. There is grace for each temp - ta - tion, There is strength for ev - ery day, There's a lift for ev - ery
3. For the grace that God has giv - en I will praise Him in my song; I will love Him and will ag - es, Bear - ing love to you and me; But the Lord's so great in good - ness, bur - den That we car - ry on the way; There's a ref - uge from the tem - pest, serve Him, While my days of life pro - long; And when I shall get to Hea - ven,

That He o - pens Heav'n to view, And not on - ly gives us mer-cy, But He gives us glo-ry, too.
There is help for all we do; And when we shall end the jour-ney, We will find there's glo-ry, too.
And my jour - ney I re - view, Then I'll bless His name for - ev - er, That there's grace and glo-ry, too.

Refrain

There's grace and glo-ry, too, There's grace and glo-ry, too; There's There's grace and glo-ry, too There's grace and glo-ry, too, grace be-low for weal or woe, And then there's glo-ry, too.