

The Promised Land (Gill)

Joshua Gill, 1889

William James Kirkpatrick

$\text{♩} = 95$

1. I fled from E - gypt's bond - age, I heard that help was near; I
 2. I sang a song of tri - umph, I shout - ed o'er and o'er; And
 3. The spies brought back their mes - sage, Some wept, some said, "We can"; The
 4. Then, af - ter wea - ry march - es, And many a long - ing sigh, I
 5. And now my song of glad - ness I'm sing - ing day by day, For cast my care on Je - sus, And He dis - persed my fear: I then pur - sued my jour - ney, For Ca - naan's hap - py shore: I land was all 'twas prom - ised, But who would lead the van? At found the ri - ver cross - ing, And saw the land was nigh: The fel - low - ship with Je - sus Makes calm and bright my way; I passed be - tween the bil - lows, Walled up on ev - ery hand, I came to Si - nai's moun - tain, I trod the des - ert sand, I last, my heart des - pair - ing, Of en - tering with this band, I Lord looked down in mer - cy, By faith I touched His hand, I fear not for the mor - row, For His al - might - y hand I trust - ed to my cap - tain, And sought the prom - ised land.

Refrain

 drank at Hor - eb's foun - tain, Seek - ing the prom - ised land. cried a - loud to Je - sus, To show the prom - ised land. I am o - ver, yes o - ver On fol - lowed close be - side Him, And found the prom - ised land.
 know shall lead and keep me In this, the prom - ised land.

Ca - naan's shore I stand; I am o - ver, yes, o - ver, In the prom - ised land.