1. My Fa - ther will not let me fall! His strong and lov - ing arms en - fold me; To
2. My Sav - ior will not let me stray! The path He trod is plain be - fore me; And
3. I trust Him as a lit - tle child, Con - tent be - neath His wings to hide me; Tho'
4. His love will still re - mem - ber me In life, in death, in joy, in sor - row; What-

Him I trust my life, my all, And know that He will safe - ly hold me.
He who said, "I am the Way" Is watch - ing, ev - er watch - ing o'er me.
all a - round is rough and wild, He walks the path of peace be - side me.
- e'er be - tide, He still will be My guide to - day, my hope to - mor - row.

Refrain

Just as he prom - ised, prom - ised to do, When first to Him I trem - bling came; Now

I have trust - ed, prov - en Him true, Hal - le - lu - jah to His name!
