

Jesus Is Calling You Now

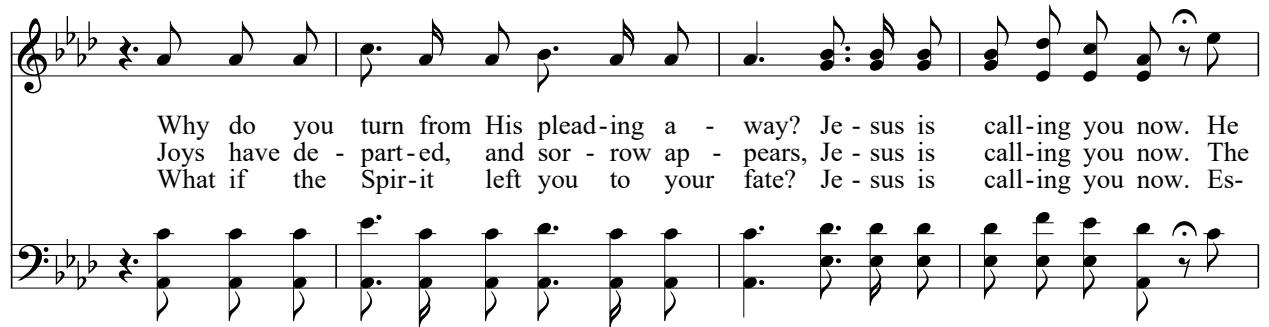

John Marchant Whyte, 1886

John Marchant Whyte

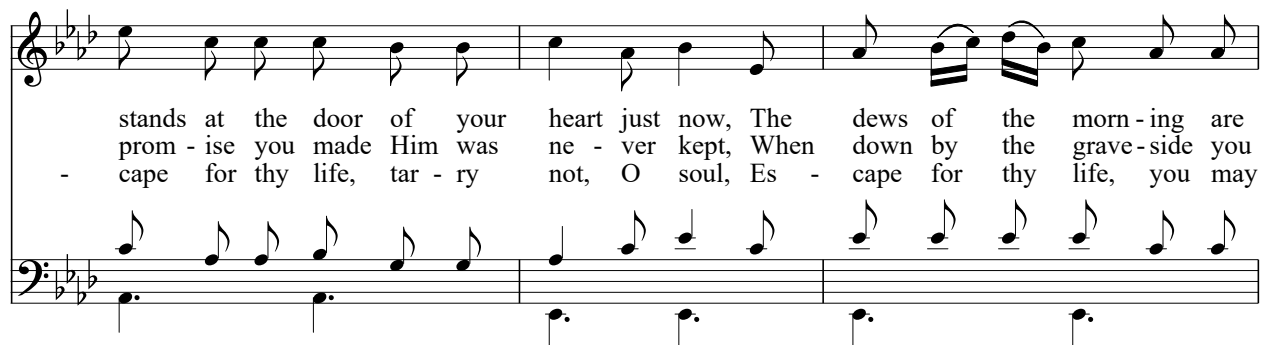

$\text{♩} = 87$

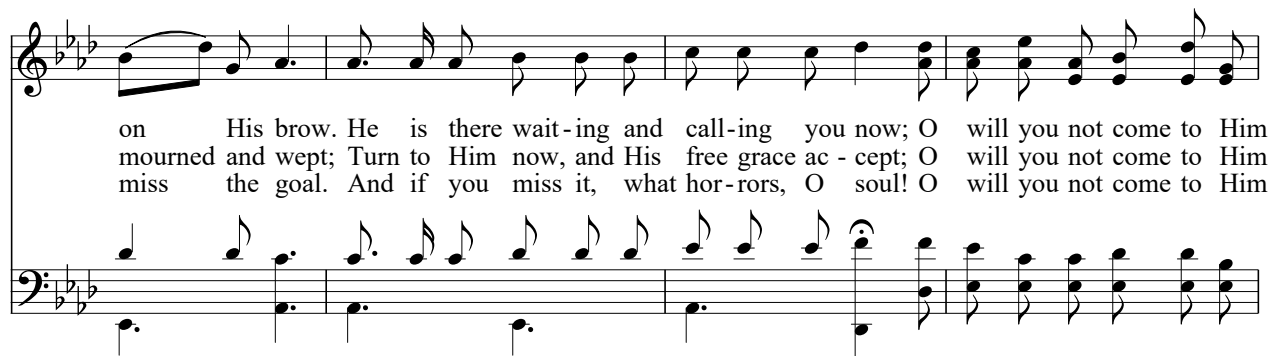

1. Why do you wait a con-ven - i - ent day? Je - sus is call-ing you now;
2. Days have gone by, and the months and the years, Je - sus is call-ing you now;
3. Dark-ness is deep-en-ing, and oh, 'tis so late! Je - sus is call-ing you now;

Why do you turn from His plead-ing a - way? Je - sus is call-ing you now. He Joys have de - part-ed, and sor - row ap - pears, Je - sus is call-ing you now. The What if the Spir-it left you to your fate? Je - sus is call-ing you now. Es-stands at the door of your heart just now, The dews of the morn - ing are prom - ise you made Him was ne - ver kept, When down by the grave-side you

- cape for thy life, tar - ry not, O soul, Es - cape for thy life, you may on His brow. He is there wait-ing and call-ing you now; O will you not come to Him mourned and wept; Turn to Him now, and His free grace ac - cept; O will you not come to Him miss the goal. And if you miss it, what hor-rors, O soul! O will you not come to Him

Refrain

now?
 now? Will you not come to Him now? Will you not trust in Him now?
 now? Come to Him now, come, just now. right

Just now, right now, O hear Him, He's call-ing you now.
 now? Come to Him now, trust in Him now.