

I Am the Door

Dwight Williams, 1873

Silas Jones Vail

♩ = 90

1. "I am the door," come in, come in, And leave with - out thy
2. "I am the door," come, gent - ly knock, And I will loose the
3. "I am the door," no long - er roam, Here are thy trea - sures,
4. "I am the door," My Fa - ther waits To make thee heir of
5. "I am the door," come in, come in, And ev - er - last - ing

load of sin; The night is dark, the storm is wild, O hea - vy lock That guards my Fa - ther's pre - cious fold; Come here thy home; I pur - chased them for thee and thinse, And rich es - tates; Come, dwell with Him, and dwell with Me, And treasures win; My Fa - ther's house was built for thee, And ven - ture in, thou stran - ger child, O ven - ture in, thou stran - ger child.

in from dark - ness and from cold, Come in from dark - ness and from cold.
paid the price in blood di - vine, And paid the price in blood di - vine.
thou My Fa - ther's child shall be, And thou My Fa - ther's child shall be.
thou shalt share His home with Me, And thou shalt share His home with Me.