

We Scatter Seeds

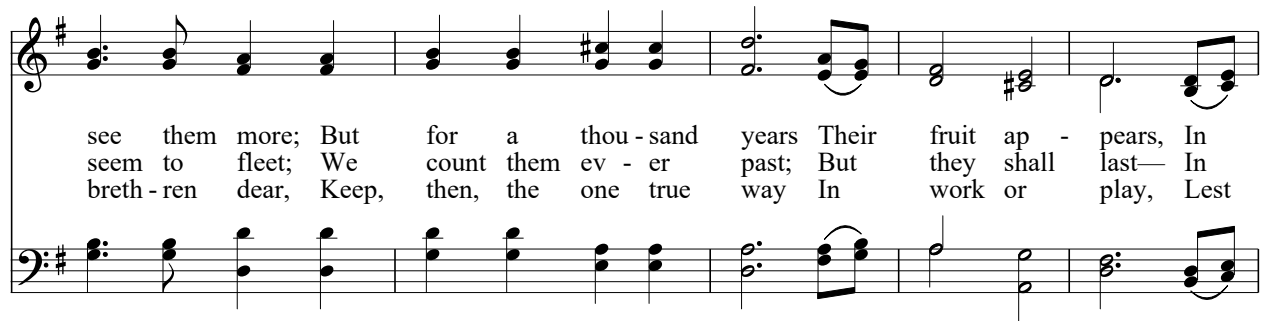

John Deble, 1882

James Holmes Rosecrans

♩ = 107

1. We scat - ter seeds with care - less hand, And dream we ne'er shall
2. The deeds we do, the words we say, In - to still air they
3. I charge thee by the years gone by, For the love's sake of see them more; But for a thou - sand years Their fruit ap - pears, In seem to fleet; We count them ev - er past; But they shall last— In breth - ren dear, Keep, then, the one true way In work or play, Lest weeds that mar the land, Or health-ful store.

the dread judg - ment day, And we shall meet.
in that world their cry Of woe thou hear.