

Song of Heaven

C. B. Stout, 1875

Robert Lowry

♩=91

1. When, on earth's dark and storm-y shore, Wild bil - lows beat, and tem - pests
2. When tri - als come, and plea - sures go, When hearts are crushed, and hot tears
3. When hea - vy bur - dens press the soul, And all the surg - es o'er us
4. At last, when heart and flesh shall fail, And we must pass the sha - dowy roar, 'Tis sweet to lift our thoughts a - bove, To realms of peace, of light and flow, How pre - cious then the hour of prayer, The rest of faith, that all may roll, A - mid our sor - row light ap - pears; Faith bids the mourn - er dry his vale, Oh, then, blest Sav - ior, be our stay, And bring us to e - ter - nal love, A - way in Heav'n, a - way in Heav'n.

share, And hope of Heav'n, and hope of Heav'n.
tears, And look to Heav'n, and look to Heav'n.
day, The day of Heav'n, the day of Heav'n.
