

How Blest and How Joyous

Marshall Clement Kurfees, 1887

Alexander C. Hopkins

♩ = 112

1. How blest and how joy-ous will be the glad day, When heart beats to
2. The prayer of our Sav-ior im-pels us move on; Its words are still
3. Be faith-ful and true till the war-fare is o'er, Till fac-tions are heart in the work of the Lord; When Chris-tians u-nit-ed shall swell the grand sound-ing the call of our king; And Paul, in de-vo-tion, doth e-cho the foiled and the vic-t'ry is won; And mil-lions of voic-es shall blend on the

Refrain
lay, Di-vi-sions all end-ed, tri-um-phant His word! song, "I beg you, my breth-ren, to speak the same thing." O shout the glad shore, To wel-come us en-ter our Fa-ther's glad home.

word, O has-ten the day, When all of God's peo-ple are one; O shout the glad word, O has-ten the day, When all of God's peo-ple are one;