

The Christian Mariner

A. W. Blakesley, 1881

John Robson Sweney

♩=95

1. Both by day and by night, Both in dark - ness and light, Must the
2. Is not Christ on the deep? Is He not in the ship? Says He
3. With our Je - sus thus near, Let us ban - ish each fear, Tho' earth's
4. Soon the prize will be won, And life's voyage will be done, And with mar - i - ner keep on his way; By his com - pass must steer, Mid all not, "Do not fear, it is I"? At His word storm and tide Shall in hopes round us blast - ed may lie; Tho' the storm down may pour, And loud Je - sus' own flock we shall reign; By life's wa - ters be led, In its

Refrain
dan - ger and fear, Till the dark - ness and storms pass a - way. si - lence sub - side, And each child safe - ly land - ed on high. Then we'll thun - ders may roar, And the sur - ges may dash to the sky.
green pas - tures fed, And we'll rest in our heav - en - ly home.

sing, then we'll sing, Tho' the storm mad-ly round us may roar; When we Then we'll sing, then we'll sing, mad-ly roar.

an-chor a - bove, We will meet those we love, On that beau-ti - ful, beau-ti - ful shore.