2. Ne - ver a - lone, tho' the path's rough and steep, He who is with us our
3. Ne - ver a - lone, tho' oft - times we for - get When dan - gers threat - en and
4. Nev - er a - lone, His strong arm will not fail E'en to up - hold us thro' wild tem - pests blow; Je - sus, our Sav - ior, leads on day by day, foot - steps will keep. Safe o'er life's trou - bles He lifts us al - way;

hard - ships be - set; If from the path - way we heed - less - ly stray, death's nar - row vale; To that fair land where for - ev - er 'tis day,

Refrain
He will go with us each step of the way.
He will go with us each step of the way. Ne - ver a - lone— He's a friend and a guide,
Still He is with us each step of the way.
He will go with us each step of the way.

Ne - ver a - lone— ev - er close to our side. Ne - ver a - lone— naught our hearts should dis - may, For He will go with us each step of the way.
