

God, as We Stand Amid Your World

Richard W. Adams, 2018

John Bacchus Dykes, 1866

♩=125

1. God, as we stand a - mid Your world, Gaz - ing on wait - ing lands,
2. Show us the fields of great - est need, Bless and pre - pare the soil;
3. Strength-en our arm to sow to - day, E - quip us for the hour;
4. Bless now the ho - ly Word we sow— May it find fer - tile ground;
5. “Shun hard, smooth paths and way - sides bright, Through and a - round the field;
6. “Fret not when nox - ious weeds a - rise A - mong the grow - ing grain;

Lord of the har - vest, seize our hearts, Em - ploy our i - dle hands.
Give us Your seed to sow a - broad, Guide and di - rect our toil.
Shield us from beast and sword a - like, Pro - tect us by Your power.
Keep it from thorns and scorch - ing sun, Make the green blade a - bound.
For work and la - bor light - ly done Re - turn but lit - tle yield.
They will be burned at har - vest time, And gold - en wheat re - main.”