

1 If we could speak all tongues of earth and 2 If we should give to oth - ers when we
 3 If by our faith we make the mount - ains
 4 When we were young we fought for world - ly

2

heav - en but have not love our pro - phe - cy is pros - per but have not love, we fail the fi - nal trem - ble but have not love, then noth - ing do we glo - ry, but world - ly ways in time all have to 4

vain; though ev - ery my - ste - ry to us is test: if we should place our sub - stance on the win: we are but noi - sy gongs or clang - ing die. We see in part as in a mir - ror

6

o - pen to talk of love will be an emp - ty al - tar, our sac - ri - fice, if boast - ful, is not cym - bals con - demned to sink to si - lence in the dark - ly and wait in hope for love's bright sun to claim. But love is swift to clear mis-un-der-blessed. For love is clean and clear in its in-end. But love is al-ways faith-ful in re-rise. Faith, hope and love, these three re-main our 10

8

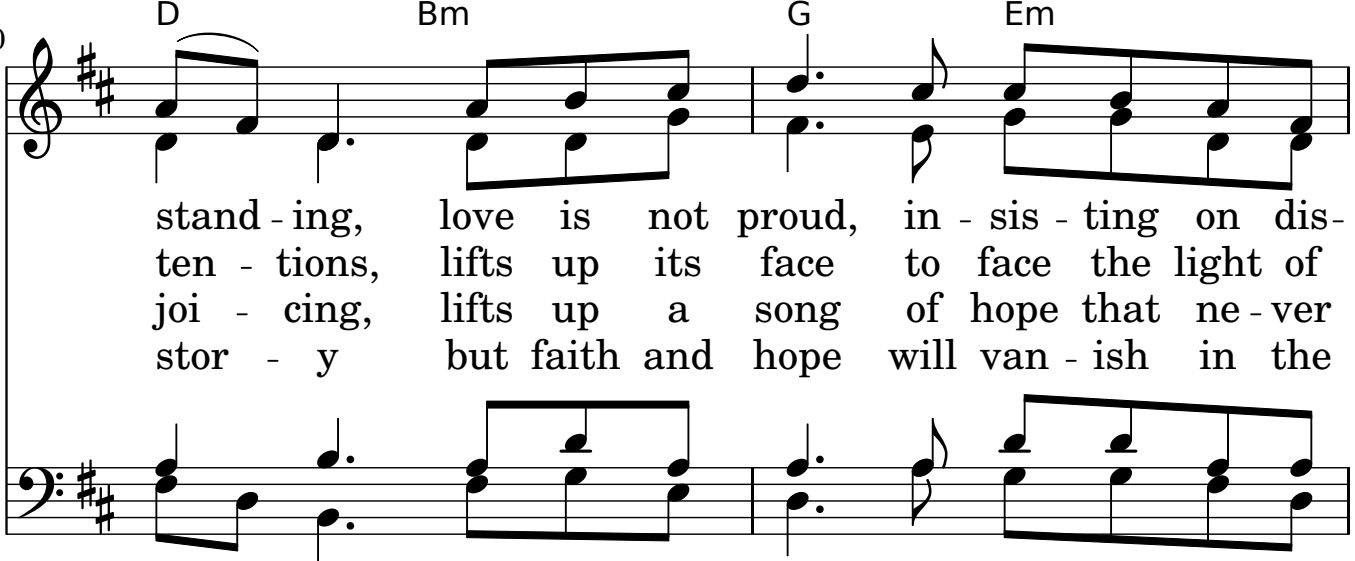

D G D Bm G

D Bm G Em

stand-ing, love is not proud, in-sis-ting on dis-ten-tions, lifts up its face to face the light of joi-cing, lifts up a song of hope that ne-ver stor-y but faith and hope will van-ish in the 12

A^{sus4} A^7 D G

play and love is rich in pa-tient un-der-day, love is pure har-mo-ny with-out pre-fails love is a choir of per-fect blend-ed day; as we a-wait love's tri-umph in the 14

D Bm G D Em A^7 D

standing: grant us, oh Lord of love to seek the better way.
ten-sion: grant us, oh Lord of love to find the better way.
voi-ces: grant us, oh Lord of love to choose the better way.
glor-y grant us, oh Lord of love to love the better way.