

In the Sweet Sometime of Heaven

May Justus, 1919

Henry G. Sherbert

♩=97

1. Of this earth - land I am wea - ry (I am wea - ry), One of God's great pil - grim
2. In my wak - ing or my sleep - ing (or my sleep - ing), I am dream - ing o'er and
3. Tho' my dear - est hopes may per - ish (hopes may per - ish), Tho' my eyes are dim with
4. Home-sick heart, be not re - pin - ing (not re - pin - ing), Be thou pa - tient here a band (great pil - grim band); Oft in path - ways worn and wea - ry (worn and wea - ry), Seek - ing o'er (yes, o'er and o'er) Of the joys in God's own keep - ing (God's own keep - ing), Of the tears (are dim with tears), This by faith my heart will cher - ish (heart will cher - ish) Thro' the while (yes, here a while); Thou shalt see God's wel - come shin - ing (wel - come shin - ing) Just be -

Refrain
for my dear home land (my dear home land). Yet by one glad prom - ise hap - pi - ness in store (for - e'er in store). Yet by one pass - ing of the years (yes, of the years). Yet by one
- yond the last long mile (the last long mile).

giv - en, I am wait - ing day by day For that sweet some - time of prom - ise giv - en I am wait - ing yes, day by day For the sweet

Hea - ven, When the years have rolled a - way!
bless - ed Hea - ven, When the years have rolled a - way!