

The Little Pilgrims

C. C. Carpenter, before 1863

“The Silver Chime,” 1862

♩=85

1. The way to Heav'n is nar - row, And its bless - èd en - trance
2. The sun - beams of the morn - ing Make the nar - row path so
3. They pass o'er rug - ged mount - ains, But they climb them with a
4. They do not great - ly trem - ble When the sha - dows night fore -
5. They know it leads to Hea - ven, With its bright and o - pen strait; But how safe the lit - tle pil - grims Who get with - in the gate!

fair; And these ear - ly lit - tle pil - grims Find dew - y bless - ings there.
song; For these ear - ly lit - tle pil - grims Have san - dals new and strong.
- tell; For these ear - ly lit - tle pil - grims Have tried the path so well.
gates, Where for hap - py lit - tle pil - grims A Sav - ior's wel - come waits.

