

Rich in Mercy

Howard S. Thursby, 1887

Howard S. Thursby

$\text{♩} = 92$

1. "Rich in mer-cy," hear the mes - sage Full of bless - ings from a - bove; God is
2. "Rich in mer-cy," dost thou hear it? Lost one, wea - ry, help - less, poor; Wilt thou
3. "Rich in mer-cy," loud pro - claim it! May the her - alds ne - ver cease Un - til call - ing to the way - ward In the sweet - est tones of love: "Rich in mer - cy," gra - cious hast - en to be - lieve it? And a Sav - ior's love im - plore: Are you need - y? God has ev - ery soul led cap - tive Finds in Christ a sweet re - lease; Come, then, sin - ner, how - e'er ac - cents, Fall - ing like a breath from Heav'n; Souls are pur - chased with a ran - som, And the rich - es Far be - yond what we can know, And the great - ness of His glo - ry Is not need - y, All thy wants to Je - sus bring; There are rich - es, and there's mer - cy, In the dim. Refrain con - trite are for - giv'n. heard of here be - low. "Rich in mer - cy," won - drous sto - ry, Let us sing it once a - pre - sence of the King. "Rich in mer - cy," won - drous sto - ry

- gain; Sweet - er mus - ic to the wea - ry, Than the an - gels' glad re - frain.
Sweet - er mu - sic to the wea - ry,