

Ring Out, O Bells, in Gladness

Amy S. Woods, 1898

Caleb Simper

♩=110

1. Ring out, O bells, in glad - ness! For Christ the Lord is born; Far ban - ish earth - ly
2. Bear, O ye winds, the sto - ry, And tell it far and near; Our Day - star now has
3. To wake - ful shep - herds watch - ing, The news was told last night, By glor - ious an - gels
4. All glo - ry in the high - est! And on the earth be peace; Loud swells the Christ - mas sad - ness On this His birth - day morn. Ap - proach, ye faith - ful peo - ple, Un - to His man - ger ris - en, The win - try world to cheer. To those who sit in dark - ness His glor - ious light has wing - ing To earth their joy - ful flight. They sang in sweet - est num - bers The song we sing this an - them, Which ne - ver - more shall cease. For Heaven and earth this morn - ing Are joined in love di -

Refrain shrine, Where lies the in - fant Sav - ior, True God, and Man di - vine. Ring out, O come, To guide them through life's sha - dows Up to their Fa - ther's home. Ring out, O morn - "To you in Da - vid's ci - ty, A Sav - ior— Christ— is born!"
- vine, By Him who in a sta - ble Is born of Da - vid's line.

bells! Ring, tri - umph - ant ring! This is the birth - day of our king; O bells, tri - umph - ant ring! Ring out, O bells! O bells, tri - umph - ant ring! Ring out, O bells! Ring, tri - umph - ant ring!

Organ