

With the Sword of the Lord

H. D. Spear, 1909

Fred S. Shepard

$\text{♩} = 102$

1. See the hosts of ill, camped a - long the hill And with-
2. O how great and strong are the hosts of wrong Clad in 3. Sa - tan strong may be, but will sure - ly flee If we
4. For - ward, then, we'll go a - nd meet the foe In the

- in the vale be - low! See their bold ar - ray! shall we all their pomp and pride! But we need not fear, when their fal - ter not nor fail; For the cause of right and of strength of Christ, our king; When the day is done, and the

Refrain

win the day, As we march a - gainst the foe?
ranks draw near, For the Lord is on our side.
God we fight, And we must at last pre - vail. With the sword of the Lord and of fight is won, Then the vic - tor's song we'll sing.

Gid-e - on, With the sword of the Lord and of   Gid-e - on, With the sword of the Lord and of Gid-e-on, Smite the en-e-my till he flee.