

Sing of the Lamb

Charles H. Whitecar, 1881

Henry Lake Gilmour

♩=95

1. Sing of the Lamb, whose love and power Res - cued the world in its dark - est hour,
2. Sing of the Lamb, whose blood was shed, Who lay a - mong, yet left the dead;
3. Sing of the Lamb, His blood ap - plied, That saves the sin - ner jus - ti - fied,
4. Sing of the Lamb, who is to stand On Zi - on's Mount, in Glo - ry Land,
5. Sing to the Lamb, all kin - dred here, Who in His glor - ious tri - umphs share;

While an - gel hosts in - tent - ly gaze, And Heaven is filled with
To save from sin, and death's dread power, He tri - umphed in the Cleans - ing un - right - eous - ness a - way, Which on the trou - bled
When all the blood washed host shall sing, "Je - sus our pro - phet, Sing to the Lamb, with all a - bove, Who taste the full - ness

♩=110

Refrain

ho - ly praise.
dark - est hour.
con - science lay. Sing, oh, sing with rap - ture, sing, oh, sing; priest and king." Sing, oh sing, sing, oh sing, Sing with rap - ture, Sing, oh, sing with rap - ture of His love.

To His shrine your prais - es bring; Sing, oh, sing, with
To His shrine your prais-es bring, To His shrine your prais-es bring; Sing, oh, sing, sing, oh, sing rap - ture, sing, oh, sing, Hal - le - lu - jahs fill the air, From all who Je - sus' mer - cies share.

