

A Blessing for Someone

Edith J. Sanford Tillotson, 1910

Florence W. Williams Falconer

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. Some-one has need of our sing - ing, Our sing - ing, our sing - ing; Some-one has need of our
 2. Some-one has need of the sto - ry, The sto - ry, the sto - ry; Some-one has need of the
 3. Here in His Book we are learn-ing, Are learn-ing, are learn-ing, Here in His book we are sing - ing, In glad - ness, or sor - row and care. Com - fort and joy it is bring-ing, Is sto - ry, Of love and re - demp-tion from sin. So when we sing of His glo - ry, His learn-ing, His word, and His will, and His way. Hearts to the Sav - ior are turn - ing, Are bring - ing, is bring - ing, So while we are rai - sing sweet voic - es in prais - ing A glo - ry, His glo - ry, We sing of sal - va - tion, His gift to cre - a - tion, A turn - ing, are turn - ing; Oh, may He now take us, ac - cept us and make us, A bless-ing for some-one we bear.

 bless-ing for some-one we win.
 bless-ing for some-one each day.