

He'll Come for Me

Johnson Oatman, Jr., 1903

C. W. James

♩=90

1. Soon I will hear my Lord say, "Come," To dwell with Him in yon - der
2. What tho' the way is all un - known, Yet I will not be all a -
3. T'ward that fair man - sion in the skies, I oft - en look with long - ing
4. I want to do for God my best, Be - fore I en - ter in - to home, And when life's day - light fades a - way, He'll come for me at close of day.

- lone; My Sav - ior will point out the way, And come for me at close of day. He'll come for eyes; But tho' God wills me now to stay, He'll come for me at close of day.
rest; Then when I leave this house of clay, He'll come for me at close of day.

Refrain

me, He'll come for me, To spend with Him e - ter - ni - He'll come for me, He'll come for me, To spend with Him e - ter - ni -

- ty; If here I love Him and o - bey, He'll come for
- ty, e - ter - ni - ty If here I love, love and o - bey me at close of day.

He'll come for me, at close of day.