

Always Ready

Mary E. Servoss, 1886

Edmund Simon Lorenz

♩ = 105

1. Al - ways rea - dy for the com - ing Of the feet we long to kiss;
2. Al - ways rea - dy! How can mor - tals Learn in rea - di - ness to wait?
3. Al - ways rea - dy with the mes - sage Of a Sav - ior's ten - der love:
4. Al - ways rea - dy in the beau - ty Of a soul that loves to trust,

Al - ways rea - dy for the mes - sage From the land of end - less bliss:
If we strive to do each du - ty We shall meet Him at the gate:
Pa - tient with the weak and err - ing, Win - ning souls to dwell a - bove:
Sure of dwell - ing with the Fa - ther When its dust re - turns to dust.

Refrain

Strive, my soul, to rea - dy be When thy Sav - ior calls for thee; Strive, my soul, to rea - dy be When thy Sav - ior calls for thee. Com - eth He in dark of night? Com - eth He in day's broad light? Strive, my soul, to rea - dy be When thy Sav - ior calls for thee.