

Sometime, Somewhere

Ephraim Timothy Hildebrand, 1899

A. F. Myers

♩ = 115

1. Some-time, some - where, yes, some sweet day, Where sin and sor - row
2. Some-time, some - where, yes, some glad morn, Where cloud nor mist be-
3. Some-time, some - where, yes, some glad day, We'll join the blood washed, have passed a - way, With joy in our hearts, and songs on our tongues, We'll

- dim the fair dawn, There light from the throne, the light of God's Son, Shall bliss-ful as they, To sing the "new song" and praise the dear name, Of rit.

rest in our Sav - ior some sweet day.
fall on our fac - es some sweet day.
our blest Re - deem-er, some sweet day.